Overcrowding

Policy:

The Guild believes that the overcrowding of students on our campus puts pressure on many aspects of the academic and learning experience. This includes but is not limited to high student staff ratios, pressure on facilities such as the sports centre, services such as counselling, study space and lecture theatres; all of which have a direct negative impact on the quality of education and university experience. In line with the Guild's 'University Recruitment and Resources' Policy, the Guild will lobby the University to recruit a manageable number of students and to invest in their infrastructure and facilities as student numbers increase.
