

This Guidance should be read in conjunction with the Guild of Students' Referendum Regulations.

Returning Officer & Nominees

The Returning Officer for the forthcoming Referendum is James Lindsay, Director of Community & Representation.

The Deputy Returning Officer is Jane Baston, Student Voice & Representation Manager

You can contact the Returning Officer by emailing studentvoice@guild.bham.ac.uk.

Regulation of Campaign Teams

The Guild will recognise a campaign team aligned to each of the voting options, this will be as follows.

- Yes
- No
- Abstain

Full Members can sign-up to be a campaigner and join a Campaign Team here. Full Members must sign-up to be a Campaigner in order to access support from the Guild and join a Campaign Team.

Budget

Campaign Teams will be provided with a budget of £100. Campaigns must not spend more than the allocated budget of £100 and are not permitted to seek external support for their campaign.

Campaign Team Leaders will be responsible for submitting the Campaign Team's budget by the deadline set by the Guild.

The budget submission deadline is 12:00pm, Wednesday 10 June 2026.

Campaign Materials

The Guild will provide campaign materials to each Campaign Team. The campaign materials available for issue to each campaign team will be equal across the number of recognised campaign teams and only issued once. Campaign materials will only be issued to the Campaign Team Leader, or their Deputy if they inform the Guild of who this is.

The Guild will issue the following campaign materials per campaign team as outlined above:

- Banner material (issued by the metre)
- Guild referendum information leaflets

Collection of Campaign materials can be made from the Voice & Representation Office at the Guild of Students, Mon-Fri 10:00 – 16:00. Any materials used above this allocation, should be accounted for within the campaign budget submission.

Should Campaign Teams decide to create their own campaign materials, utilising the budget made available to them, all materials should be submitted to the Guild ahead of being shared with voting members. It is the responsibility of the Campaign Team Leader to submit materials to the Guild for review.

All campaign material created by a Campaigner or Campaign Team should be emailed to studentvoice@guild.bham.ac.uk for review. The Guild will review all materials to ensure they are lawful, ideally within two working days of submission.

Campaigners should take due consideration to ensure that any promotion of their campaign is accessible to students.

Campaigners may seek impartial advice from the Student Voice Team at the Guild on how to navigate the process, understand the Referendum Regulations and any other questions in relation to the Referendum.

Student Group Endorsements

Support from Student Groups is governed by Referendum Regulation 4.13.

For the purpose of the referendum on NUS (UK) affiliation being conducted in June 2026, Student Groups will not be permitted to campaign or support a campaign.

Complaints

Should you wish to submit a complaint regarding the Referendum, specifically that a regulation or rule has been breached, please see the Referendum Complaints Process.

Complaints will not be accepted in any format other than via the Referendum Complaint Form on the Guild website.

Complaints will only be accepted up to two days (48 hours) after the close of voting.

Student Behaviour Towards Guild Staff

Students must treat Guild and University staff with respect. The Guild does not tolerate harassment or bullying of its or the University's staff.

Guild and University staff should email complaints@guild.bham.ac.uk if they wish to complain about an individual's behaviour in relation to the Referendum. No other Referendum related complaints will be accepted via this inbox.

The DRO may investigate complaints from Guild and University staff as noted above.
