

Job Title:	Advice Assistant
Responsible to:	Guild Advice Team
Outline of Post:	Share information with students to promote awareness of Guild support services. Triage student enquiries using standard templates, providing initial advice and guidance, and signposting to appropriate services where needed.
Hours:	Up to 6 hours per week.
Start Date:	Please note, this role starts in September 2026. The role runs throughout the next academic year.

Duties and Responsibilities:

1. Represent Guild Advice, provide support-based information and pre-approved initial academic guidance to students.
2. Support in-person academic drop-ins and occasional advice pop-ups during at key points of the year, such as during appeals season.
3. Appropriately triage student enquiries, respond using pre-approved template responses, signpost to appropriate services and escalate enquiries outside of your remit. Training will be provided.
4. Maintain up to date knowledge of information, advice and guidance on the Guild website and participate in regular case reviews.
5. Listen, be friendly and approachable, showing high standards of customer care at all times.
6. Support with the administration of casefiles and enquiries; handling sensitive and confidential data with care.
7. Attend and complete compulsory training as required.
8. Carry out other duties which naturally fall within the reasonable expectations of the post.

Person Specification

The person specification describes the knowledge, experience & abilities that the Guild is looking for in the student staff we employ. To be successful, during the selection process (application form & interview) you should demonstrate:

- Strong customer service focus with an awareness of impact on the customer experience
- Experience of active listening
- Ability to initiate contact with other students in a confident manner
- Strong communication skills
- An understanding of how to handle sensitive and confidential data
- Good standard of IT skills and willing to learn new skills – Including Microsoft Word, Excel, email and the Internet, e.g. social media sites
- Able to work in a team, but also on own initiative
- Flexible, committed and punctual
- Able to balance academic work with your responsibility to the Guild as your employer throughout the academic year
- Able to stay calm and friendly under pressure in a busy environment
- Keen to contribute to the development of the Guild Advice Service.
- Flexible with working patterns and would be open to working during vacation periods to support the service