GuildofStudents
University of Birmingham

Job Description:
Kitchen Shift Manager

Post Title: Kitchen Shift Manager

Responsible to: Kitchen Manager

Responsible for: Kitchen Shift Leaders and Student Staff

Grade: Guild Grade C

Organisation:

This role is part of the Venues department working collectively with colleagues delivering the Guild's large-scale events, bars, catering, security and technical services (sound, light & production). The Venues team is part of the Engagement Directorate.

Job Purpose:

The Kitchen Shift Manager role is to support delivery of the Venues departmental plan. We expect the role to help to create an inclusive and engaging environment for all.

The role is required:

- To be responsible for the day-to-day management of the kitchen operation during allocated shifts, ensuring consistently high standards of cleanliness, quality, service, maintenance and food production in accordance with Guild and brand standards.
- To lead, supervise and develop Kitchen Shift Leaders and student staff, ensuring effective deployment of staff, delivery of excellent customer service and achievement of operational standards.
- To support the Kitchen Manager in the operational management of the kitchen, including staff management, rota delivery, stock control, financial performance, compliance, training and continuous improvement.

Success in the role will require a highly student and customer focused approach together with an emphasis on teamwork. The role involves collaboration with internal and external stakeholders, acting as a positive ambassador for the Guild and facilitating under-represented groups to find a comfortable place here.

Registered Office: University of Birmingham Guild of Students, Edgbaston Park Road, Birmingham B15 2TU. Registered Charity Number: 1137548. Registered in England. Company number: 6638759.

Supporting a culture of ambitious targets and a positive team spirit are also key. The role is expected to follow the Guild's competency framework, which should be read in conjunction with this job description.

Key Role Responsibilities:

1. To work with the Kitchen Manager and Pub Manager to ensure the effective day-to-day management of the kitchen operation, food production, food safety, service standards and working environment in accordance with Guild and brand specifications.

2. To manage the kitchen operation during allocated shifts, ensuring consistently high standards of cleanliness, quality, service, maintenance and food presentation are achieved.

3. To supervise, support and develop Kitchen Shift Leaders and student staff, allocating work, monitoring performance, providing coaching and ensuring operational standards are maintained.

4. To ensure compliance with all relevant legislation, Guild policies, food safety requirements, health and safety requirements, licensing legislation, COSHH, HACCP, fire safety procedures and other operational procedures.

5. To monitor food quality, presentation, preparation, portion control and service delivery, ensuring all food is prepared and served in accordance with Guild and brand specifications

6. To support the Kitchen Manager in achieving agreed commercial objectives through effective stock control, ordering, waste reduction, labour deployment and management of food costs.

7. To support the Kitchen Manager in the recruitment, induction, training and ongoing development of Kitchen Shift Leaders and student staff, participating in recruitment and selection activities, including shortlisting and interviewing, and contributing to succession planning and performance improvement.

Registered Office: University of Birmingham Guild of Students, Edgbaston Park Road, Birmingham B15 2TU. Registered Charity Number: 1137548. Registered in England. Company number: 6638759.

8. To monitor operational performance, including food quality, service standards, stock variances, wastage and labour deployment, taking corrective action within delegated authority and reporting trends or concerns to the Kitchen Manager.

9. To support the Kitchen Manager in the preparation and implementation of staff rotas, monitoring staffing levels during shifts and making short-term adjustments to meet operational requirements. In the absence of the Kitchen Manager, prepare rotas in accordance with agreed staffing budgets and forecast trading levels.

10. To monitor stock levels, complete stock control procedures, investigate discrepancies, receive deliveries and ensure appropriate stock availability.

11. To maintain accurate operational records, including food safety documentation, training records, incident reports, maintenance records and other management information.

12. To investigate customer complaints relating to food service and kitchen operations, resolving issues where appropriate and escalating significant matters to the Kitchen Manager or Pub Manager.

13. To monitor the condition, cleanliness and maintenance of kitchen equipment and facilities, ensuring faults are reported promptly and appropriate action taken.

14. To support delivery of promotional activities, menu launches and operational initiatives, ensuring the kitchen team are fully briefed and standards maintained.

15. To deputise for the Kitchen Manager during periods of planned or unplanned absence, ensuring continuity of kitchen operations and exercising delegated management responsibilities appropriate to the role.

16. To develop and maintain effective relationships with relevant local and university stakeholders.

17. To identify improvements and recommend these to the Kitchen Manager and the Pub Manager for consideration.

Registered Office: University of Birmingham Guild of Students, Edgbaston Park Road, Birmingham B15 2TU. Registered Charity Number: 1137548. Registered in England. Company number: 6638759.

General Duties:

1. To undertake appropriate induction and ongoing training and personal development, as required for the role.

2. To adhere to all Guild and brand policy with reference to HR, staffing, health and safety, data protection, environmental and any other specific Guild Policy which impacts upon your role or that of the team.

3. To be familiar with the Guild's competency framework, striving always to demonstrate the positive behaviours which drive the highest standards of personal and organisational performance in supporting our students. Grade C Coordinators should be developing within level 1 of the six competencies (Student and Customer Focus, Accountability, Results Focus, Inclusivity, Communication and Teamwork) which is designed to support staff to achieve high performance.

4. To act as a role model in portraying a positive image of the Guild both internally and externally, acting as an ambassador and displaying high standards of personal integrity and professionalism.

5. To support the work of the Kitchen Manager and the wider work of the department, where necessary, in the event of sickness, holiday or other exceptional circumstances.

6. To undertake such other duties as may be reasonably required, consistent with the nature and grade of the post.

Registered Office: University of Birmingham Guild of Students, Edgbaston Park Road, Birmingham B15 2TU. Registered Charity Number: 1137548. Registered in England. Company number: 6638759.

Person Specification: Kitchen Shift Manager

You must be able to demonstrate in your application that you have;

	Essential	Desirable
QUALIFICATIONS
Good general education, A level or beyond, typically including Math's and English at least to GSCE C/4 or equivalent	✓
Level 3 Award in Supervising Food Safety (or equivalent)	✓
City & Guilds/NVQ Level 3 in Professional Cookery, Hospitality or Catering, or equivalent relevant experience	✓
City & Guild/NVQ level 4 qualification (Managing Food Safety)		✓
KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE
Experience of working within a high-volume commercial kitchen	✓
Experience of supervising or leading a team within a customer-focused operation.	✓
Experience of monitoring operational performance, food quality and customer service standards.	✓
Experience of working within food safety, health and safety and licensing requirements relevant to licensed premises.	✓
Experience of coaching, developing and motivating staff to achieve operational standards.	✓
Experience of stock control, stock ordering, stock monitoring and minimising wastage.	✓
Experience of supporting recruitment, selection and induction of staff.		✓
SKILLS AND ABILITIES
Ability to motivate, coach and develop staff to achieve operational standards.	✓
Ability to prioritise workload, organise resources and respond effectively to changing operational demands.	✓

Good customer service, decision-making and problem-solving skills.	✓
Ability to monitor operational performance, analyse information and implement appropriate corrective action within delegated authority.	✓
Working knowledge of food safety legislation, health and safety requirements, licensing legislation and operational compliance requirements relevant to licensed premises.	✓
Good communication skills with the ability to communicate effectively, verbally and in writing, with staff, customers and stakeholders.	✓
Ability to work using initiative whilst recognising when matters should be referred to the Kitchen Manager.	✓
Ability to establish strong working relationships with a wide range of individuals both within and outside the Guild of Students and the University, including students, Guild Officers, Senior Management, welfare organisations	✓
Ability to present information clearly and concisely in writing or verbally	✓
Good IT skills including proficiency in Microsoft Office including digital systems	✓
An understanding of the issues facing students in higher education today		✓
PERSONAL QUALITIES
Motivated by working in a student-led, democratic workplace	✓
Student & Customer focus: Keeps student leadership and the needs of students and customers at the heart of activities	✓
Accountability: Takes personal responsibility for the important role they play in the Guild's work and in wider society	✓
Results Focus: Strives for the best results – gets things done on time and to a high standard	✓
Inclusivity: Values diversity - works to create an inclusive and engaging environment across all our activities and services	✓
Communication: Communicates clearly and appropriately to people across our students' union and outside	✓
Teamwork: Builds good relationships and works effectively with a range of people to deliver our shared goals	✓

Registered Office: University of Birmingham Guild of Students, Edgbaston Park Road, Birmingham B15 2TU. Registered Charity Number: 1137548. Registered in England. Company number: 6638759.